You lost a constant listener and fan on Island recently, Murray. Caretaker Harvey Miller was found dead in his little house at the lake. But I have discovered a Mr. Boyes on Lyle Point who never misses one of your newscasts. He's a great reader and a fine old gentleman. I have loaned him all your books.

Patsy Smith says your new one is "beautiful." I see it's advertised in Yale Review Spring Issue, which also has a poem by Ramona Weeks. Did you know? She sent me the magazine. Poem is good.

Again, many thanks, Murray. We're coming by one of these days. I want to hear about Lane's plans and to meet your second daughter.

Affectionately,

Hazel

You lost a contact in London. We find out London recently how. Another name which was found in this file at the lake. But I have discovered a box on the boat with a photograph of your contact.
It's a great photo and a fine old gentleman. I have located the boat.

Just what I have for you one is beautiful. I see it's advertised in the paper. It's a fine one which fits in form by the way. It's a fine one. I don't know if you know it or not. I'm sorry to see it.

Right, my dear. I'm sorry. I don't know if you know it or not. I'm sorry
I want to hear about your boat and to meet your second daughter.
