

I have not read, nor seen, your book yet. Bon replied, amazingly, that they were not stocking it. Why? I have ordered it through Tacoma Writer's Club and should have it soon. I have seen several nice ads, but no direct review yet. Am I missing one? I have New Yorker, Harpers, Atlantic,
 Nation, Time. Oh, I did
 MUST WEEP. Characters, I hope, unrecognizable
 Picket Rock background. Title: WOMEN
 I have sold another story to Harper's :
 H1.

Friday June 13
 A. Island 1958

see Lockerby's review in the Trib.
Must get at a revision I have to do today.
But I wanted to tell you the good news.

Jim is having a lot of contact with Bigelow the Golden Rule. Spent an hour with him last week. He's all for Bigelow. He said Bigelow winked at him when he walked into court for his arraignment. He has also recently interviewed the Shah of Iran. He's having a great time.

One toad has taken up residence underneath a grotesque sphynx-like piece of drift we have. He sits and looks knowingly out. Every day we obligingly sprinkle his doorway.

Love,

Hazel

Hello, Lane.
