

Did you see where Mrs. Goering received a bunch of toads for her anniversary? I could tell her a thing or two.

We're living on the Island now, but will keep the apartment until our lease expires the first of October.

As always, I enjoy hearing your voice every morning. The Mrs. Wagenblast who was killed by the speed demon is the daughter of a friend of mine, Evelyn Fisk. I was shocked and angry.

I will try to call you next time I put on shoes and go to town.

Love,

Hazel

Love to Lane, too.

Did you ever see... I don't know where... but I don't know where... I don't know where...

...the... the... the... the...
...the... the... the... the...
...the... the... the... the...

As always, I enjoy hearing your voice every morning.
The first... the first... the first...
is the... is the... is the...
shocked and angry.

I will try to call you next time I put on shoes and go to town.

Love,
