

and said that a Mrs. Stearns would, also. But that she wouldn't ask her until you gave your approval. I believe she is the woman whose story Ragsdale gave first place in the contest. Perhaps you know of others. There will be no difficulty in keeping the ten to fifteen range. It looks like about twelve now, but I could find more if you want them. There will be no difficulty about the twenty five dollars, though much of it may be paid in two halves. Most liked that idea. Mary and I will take the classes again. The time is up to you and your class schedule. The same will be all right with all of us.

Thank you very much for your kind and helpful letter. I think a very few more chapters may suffice. I am going to Anderson Island today for a quiet week-end with Earle and Jim and among the Dogpatchers and will do some cogitating.

Take good care of Rosa.

Sincerely,

Hazel H.

P.S. Why don't you have Rosa persuade you to write up your drawbridge experiences for that new "I, Personally" department in Atlantic? See the river pilot article by the Harvard man in the July issue? Yours are funnier.
