With a subject so totally unfamiliar to me, it was necessary to do a lot of double checking. But he had some good books I was able to borrow and of course he was right here next door during all of the first draft writing. I am glad to have done the book, for several reasons having to do with my family. I am glad you mentioned the rattlesnake bit. This was typical of Willet's kind of wit.

I do thank you.

I have managed to avoid most promotional appearances. I did, out of gratitude, talk to Pierce County Library workshop for their branch librarians. Headquarters has been just great in finding books for me. Guess who introduced me? Nancy Jane Bare. I was amazed... In a weak moment, also, I said I would talk to the new Longbraun Historical society next month. They are sending a boat across for me.

Earle and I both felt badly about Bill Inge. He was a hometownner with us at Independence High School. I guess he had other problems than his rejected novel.

Love to Rosa and Lane, too,

Hazel

we plan to see you one of these days -
