Dear Rosa and Murray:

Has it really been a week since you were here? I have had a note to myself on the table for six days, to write and thank you for coming. But, I have thanked you every day in my head. It is always an honor and a treat to have you.

Lois Scholl came by yesterday with a big bag of chickweed for the ducks and took ~~a~~ note of the colors in the rocking chair pad. She is going to make one for Lane, who may be able to find some chair in her house that it will accommodate. I will mail it to Argus.

Lois and Company have started another quilt, with appliqued maple leaves, this one to be raffled at the fair. Did I tell you about the friend who stayed at Higgins for several weeks and who said she had Lois figured out, that she's really ten women and that she brings them out one at a time?

We have had two sets of reporter - photographers on the Island this week. The PI people came on Monday to interview Judy Adams, our R.N.-paramedic who ~~takes~~ care of all emergencies over here, and Broom and Hayza from the Seattle Times, who did ditto. Judy is to have a Jeffersonian award from the PI and a Humanities award from the Times.

Again, thanks loads for coming. And an especial thanks for being so nice to Earle. I think he often feels like an un-person these years and that a bit of attention is like a shot in the arm to him.

Heaps of Love,

Hazel

I enjoyed the drabble book. I'm not sure I could see any similarity
in our syntax, but Whie's a good writer and I'm pleased that you did. I'll get the book back to you one of these days.

Thanks, too, for the English flower Chart. An English Cousin, years ago, sent me a quaint & simple book of English wild flowers and I have the more elegant and useful Oxford to go with the Chart, which I plan to mount somehow and somewhere.

See you within the year I hope -
H.
