Dear M and R:
Wow, what a dorsal fin! Good to hear you're both Free at Last. Wish I were. I know what you mean by dragging books. I also get dragging spirits. I'm in final typing of the winnowed re-write. I am a slow and none too accurate typist. I blame this old Underwood. I will get some little carbons off to you as soon as I have accumulated. But you have done enough for me. I should sink or swim on my own... You are always welcome on Anderson Isl. Come see...

Love, Hazel
