Dear Murray and Rosa:

I now have an address, no thanks to the grid people. But don't bother. I can still be found up the hill from the ferry... I am in the midsection of your DOWN THE DANUBE, Murray. A beautiful piece. Indeed, terrific. I was right there, saw and heard. Thanks for doing this.

I knew it was coming up. I don't get The Weekly, but Dorothy Barnard brings me pieces she knows I would like. I do think it's a fine paper and a great credit to Seattle. And it's getting better. Thanks for contributing.

I, too, enjoy your pieces in Northwest Arts, and pass the paper on to Roger, and your reviews in the Bugle. They are one of my few contacts with "Continent" arts as adjunct to the Anderson Island variety.

Is Argus still published?

Marion Moscrip was most pleased with her autographed "Gold Rush" book. And Roger was ecstatic about his pair. Thanks again.

Did you know that Mary Boze's only son, Jimmy, died suddenly? I saw it in the Trib. She must be devastated. I met his wife when I went with Roger to pick up the 1775 piano for rebuilding, and liked her. She is a friend of the Don Slaters. Jimmy had taken over Jim's insurance business when Jim, who is ailing, retired.

Love to you both, and to Lane when you see her. She sent a Christmas card and enclosed a cute picture of Laurel.

Lael was to have left today for Unalaska, but her departure has been postponed until next week. She is restless and anxious to start her new job, but her boat (she doesn't know which of the Tenyo fleet it will be) has not come in yet.
