

Anderson Island

Sat. 14th

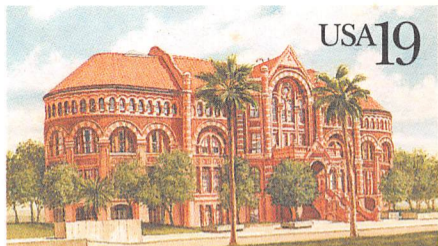

ca. 1985

Dear Rosa and Murray:

I missed Murray's piece in the Trib about Leroy's book (I don't get Sun. Trib) But I caught it in Arches yesterday and found it splendid. L. must have been pleased. I liked the photo, too. All is well here. Writing coming along slowly but surely. Jim and Liane have house framed, roofed, partitioned and seem happy. Roger entertains entire Amsterdam Bay with his Carillon each evening at 7. Have you seen book involving him, entitled THE PIANO MAN, but island not named? Mystery, I understand. By a Noreen Kirkpatrick who lived here for a time. I may have guests from England next Mo, ... My father's sister's grandson. Maybe I can learn something about my Confederate grandfather. Hello to Lane, and take care.

Love,

Hazel
