Dear Murray:

Thanks immensely for your very helpful report on Hazel Heckman's ISLAND YEAR. This should enable us to clear the matter with the Press Committee and I am sure Mrs. Heckman will be grateful, as are we, for your suggestions in regard to revision. Patsy and I were particularly glad to have an opportunity to talk to you about that angle and we do appreciate your help.

In case I have not already done so, here are vouchers which we need in order to persuade the University's Business Office to send you a check for the honorarium. If you will sign and return them we will put them through, or did you want books? Again, all our thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Charles E. Cunningham

ENC.

P.S. According to our records you have not been paid for reading the Norman Clark manuscript. It was to be either $35.00 in cash or $50.00 worth of books to be selected from Press publications and I sent you vouchers and a catalogue from which to choose books if the latter alternative appealed to you. We can make it the same deal in the case of the Heckman manuscript, i.e. a total of $100.00 worth of books if you wish. Let me know your preference. If you cannot find the vouchers for the Clark or the catalogue of our Books-in-Print, I shall gladly send you duplicates.
